District Superintendent

Michel Bisailon
District Superintendent

Welcome to this 2023 Conference!

You are among the guests of honour at these meetings. During the next two days, we pray that you will receive and have the opportunity to bless others through the fellowship that will take place.

Isaiah 26:2-4: Open the gates that the righteous nation may enter, the nation that keeps faith. You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you. Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord, the Lord himself, is the Rock eternal.

To Enter is an invitation.

- An invitation to greater intimacy
- An invitation to discover
- An invitation to go further

You will have the opportunity to hear from several guests who will address each of these invitations.

The Conference will consist of both business and edifying sessions. This year, important elections will take place in regards to District Leadership such as the position of District Secretary-Treasurer as well as members for the Leadership Team and the Pastoral College. Your attendance is therefore of utmost importance.

As we embrace this opportunity to be together at the 2023 District Conference, we believe that we will be strengthened beyond what we can imagine. Our Father loves to bless in special ways when His leaders come together in one place to seek His presence and unity.

Michel Bisailon

Basic Parliamentary Procedure

District Constitution By-Law I

In order to expedite the work of the District Conference, it shall be governed by a spirit of Christian love and fellowship, and by the accepted rules of parliamentary procedure as outlined in Robert's Rules of Order.

Membership

Participation in Conference business shall be limited to those holding active credentials with the Quebec District of The Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada, except for those who hold Ministry Related credential, and lay delegates with a current letter from the delegates' church so identifying him or her as an official representative. All members of the Conference must register with the Roster Committee.

Conference Bar

All members participating in the Conference business must do so from within the Conference Bar as determined by resolution of this Conference.

Addressing the Chair

All members speaking to the Conference must direct their remarks to the Chair. After standing and addressing the Chairman, the member shall wait to be recognized by the Chair before proceeding to speak. Dialogue on the Conference floor is not permitted.

Speaking to a Motion

When speaking to a motion, a member is expected to complete their remarks and then refrain from speaking again to the same motion until all others who so wish may do so

Alternate Speakers

After one member has spoken to a motion, the same motion should not be spoken to by another speaker until opportunity has been made for a member to speak in opposition to the motion, if there should be such.

Punctuality

Members of the Conference are requested to be in their chosen places within the Bar at the commencement of the session. Moving in and out of the Bar is distracting and should be avoided.

Announcements

All public announcements must be submitted to the Conference Secretary in writing. All such announcements must be made from the rostrum.

Thank you for your cooperation!

Minutes of the 2021 District Conference

Twelfth District Conference
Virtual / Zoom
May 11, 2021

1.1 Welcome and Instructions

The Secretary-Treasurer, Reverend John Ippolito, welcomed everyone to the Twelfth District Conference. He mentioned that exceptionally this session will be conducted by Zoom and that it will be bilingual. He then gave some practical guidelines regarding the Zoom platform.

1.2 Prayer

The Secretary-Treasurer prayed for this conference and especially for the needs of the following people: Michael Dukefe, Don Mann, David Hazzard, and Sylvie Lemoyne-Bisaillon. He then turned the floor over to the Superintendent who shared what God has put on his heart.

1.3 Acknowledgements and System Instructions

The Secretary-Treasurer first thanked the Superintendent for his message of encouragement and Rev. Anne Yank for the translation as well as Anne-Marie Lawrence and her team for the worship song. He then gave instructions for the Zoom chat, the voting system and translation for those who needed it.

1.4 Call to Order

The Chairman called the business session of the Twelfth District Conference to order at 10:15 a.m. He advised that anyone wishing to speak during the session should do so via the "chat" option.

He then proposed the first 8 motions that were seconded by those in attendance, and a vote was taken via the Simple Vote system.

1.4.1 Motion 1 : Voting Bar

He moved that the voting bar be designated by those registered and eligible voters who received the first ballot at their SINGLE email address submitted.

1.4.2 Motion 2 : Ratification of candidates for accreditation from 2019-2021

He moved that the list of candidates for accreditation listed in the Conference booklet on pages 53-54 and adopted by the Leadership Team, be accepted by the floor.

1.4.3 Motion 3 : Roster Committee Report

He invites Reverend John Ippolito to show the Roster report on the screen.

Members at Large

The nominating committee (Section Pastors and District Officers) have chosen the following candidates:

Kyvenz Amédée

Kyvenz is driven by a passion to inspire and help people from all walks of life to discover God's amazing love and improve their lives and their contribution to the world. Over the years, many experiences and valuable relationships have allowed him to better define himself as a person, find his mission and develop his leadership. That is where he gets his conviction that one cannot reach one's full potential without being accompanied, and the motivation to get involved in the PAOC Quebec District's team of certified coaches. Kyvenz is also the lead pastor of Gospelvie and co-founder of Inspiration Editions, the District's official provider of Christian literature.

Guy Gosselin

Guy has been involved in Christian leadership since 1983. A graduate of the Institut biblique du Québec, he has been in full-time ministry since 1998 and teaching at IBQ since 2007. In September 2011, he became Senior Pastor of the Carrefour chrétien des Maskoutains (a merged church). His passion is to see lives changed by the preaching of the Word of God. Guy and his wife Lyne have four children.

Guy has been a Member at Large of the District Leadership Team since 2009.

Jean-Frédéric
Laroche

Jean-Frédéric has been serving since 2009 in Quebec City at the Carrefour Chrétien de la Capitale as a youth pastor and then as an assistant pastor. Over the years, he has been involved in the Paradox team and has recently become a member of the District Leadership Team. With his wife Sindy, they are the proud parents of three children.

Gaétan Gaucher

Gaétan has been in pastoral ministry since 1984 and pastored the Centre Chrétien Manicouagan in Baie-Comeau from 1990 to 1995. He became a missionary with the PAOC in Ivory Coast from 1995 to 2003 and then in Senegal from 2004 to 2010. During his term, he participated in the construction of several church buildings and schools, as well as in evangelism and the development of children's ministries. Since September 2010, he has been serving as Senior Pastor of the Assemblée du Plein Évangile in LaSalle. Gaétan is married to Jacinthe Bélisle and they have four children.

Members at Large

The nominating committee (Section Pastors and District Officers) have chosen the following candidates:

Ronald Rust

Ron, a native Montrealer, has over 34 years of experience in pastoral ministry in both English and French-speaking churches. Ron's passion for making God and His Word relevant and intimate is appreciated by all. Now that their four children fly with their own wings, they experience a new chapter of their lives. Anna and Ron have two grandchildren.

Ron has been a Member at Large of the District Leadership Team.

Nelson Beaudry

Nelson grew up in the beautiful Lac-Mégantic region. He has been married for 24 years and is the father of 3 children. He discovered coaching in 2013 and quickly realized that this support would be helpful in his life and especially in ministry. He became senior pastor in 2014 and for almost 6 years coaching has made his pastorate much lighter. He remains available to serve you.

11. CONTROLLED NOT-FOR-PROFIT ORGANIZATION

The Québec District of the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada (the District) controls the Institut Biblique du Québec (the Institute) by virtue of its ability to influence the strategic and operational aspects of this Organization.

Institut Biblique du Québec

The Institute was established to provide theological education and pastoral training. The Institute is incorporated under Part 3 of the Quebec Companies Act and is recognized as a registered charity under the Income Tax Act. During the year, the Institute used premises owned by the District and contributed $75,000 (2021 - $75,000) towards the operating costs of the premises. The Institute also received subsidies from the District of $nil (2021 - $351,900). The Institute follows the accrual basis of accounting and has not been consolidated in the District's financial statements.
